YOUR VOICE IN THE GENERAL ELECTION

CYTŪN CAERGYBI is organising a hustings. This will take place on Thursday 27th June at 7pm in St Mary's Hall. More information to follow.

Please take a leaflet from the back of Church with a selection of issues and corresponding example questions prepared by the SVP and CAFOD to help us promote the common good, in preparation for the upcoming General Election. If you would like to use your Catholic voice on any of the issues or ask questions of candidates by e-mail or by submitting for discussion at a Hustings, you might find these useful. If anyone would like to register interest on any of the issues in particular so that they can be brought up by one of our representatives at a Hustings on behalf of our Catholic community, please contact Sue Roberts (SVP) at susan.f.roberts@btinternet.com / 07715 580251 or Rhonda Jameson (CAFOD) at beccarsj13@talktalk.net /

ANGLESEY PASTORAL COUNCIL (APC)

WEDNESDAY 19TH JUNE The APC will have their next meeting at 7pm in St Mary's Hall.

SUNDAY 23RD JUNE 2PM: Formation for Partnership in Mission on Anglesey - Session 3, Oriel Mon, Llangefni Having looked at some Church teaching about our overall mission and purpose, the next two sessions will look more closely at exactly how we need to work together to make collaborative ministry a reality. Pope Francis' call to become a synodal Church requires us all to change the way we think and the way we act. If we don't spend time reflecting on this and looking at the detail of how we interact as lay people, as clergy, as pastoral councils, we're likely to slip back into traditional mindsets and roles.
